
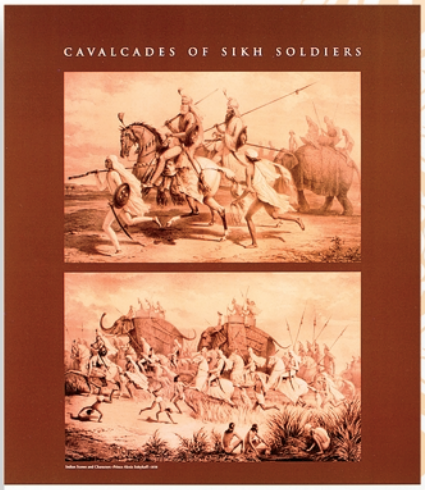
CALENDAR 2002

Limited Edition Sikh Art Calendar
KAPANY COLLECTION
Third in Series

Opportunity to share your heritage through Sikh Art

Our Price: $20.00



To mark the Khalsa tercentenary and to celebrate the turn of the millennium, a limited edition calendar presenting the breathtaking artistic heritage of the Sikhs was produced. The enthusiastic reception that this calendar received encouraged us to produce another calendar in 2001. Now we present a third in this series of exquisite Sikh Art Calendars. The 2002 calendar celebrates a landmark project in the history of Sikh Art in North America as a permanent Sikh Art Gallery will open in the heart of San Francisco in the new location of Asian Art Museum in fall 2002.

We invite you to help us and be part of the team to bring this exquisite Sikh Art Calendar 2002 for the appreciation of Sikh art and heritage by gifting this calendar to your non-Sikh friends or by simply hanging it on the wall at your home and office. Can you imagine the positive visibility this calendar will create about our unique heritage?
